Subject: Trustee v. First Premier Bank (In re Gregory S. and Patricia L. Bassler), Adversary No. 96-4031; Chapter 7; Bankr. No. 96-40328

Dear Trustee and Counsel:

The matter before the Court is the Trustee's complaint for a determination that Defendant First Premier Bank does not have a lien on a vehicle because the lien was not perfected prepetition. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). This letter decision and subsequent judgment shall constitute the Court's findings and conclusions under F.R.Bankr.P. 7052. As set forth below, the Court concludes that whether the Bank has a perfected lien on the subject vehicle, which is titled in Illinois, is a question of Illinois law and that under Illinois law, the lien was not perfected prepetition.

STIPULATED FACTS. On January 13, 1995, Gregory S. and Patricia L. Bassler owned a 1993 GMC Safari SLX van, the subject vehicle, which was titled in South Dakota. GMAC held a first lien on the vehicle. On November 21, 1995, First Premier Bank (the Bank) advanced the Bassler's sufficient funds to refinance the van and obtained a security agreement covering the van. In the security agreement, the Basslers and the Bank established South Dakota for the jurisdiction and governing law for any related lawsuits. GMAC received the payment from the Basslers on November 27, 1995, released its lien that day, and mailed the title to the Bank. When the Bank received the title from GMAC, it first learned that the vehicle was no longer titled in South Dakota but was titled in Illinois. The Bank contacted the Basslers on various occasions and asked them to get the vehicle reregistered in South Dakota and to have the Bank's lien noted on the title. The Basslers failed to do so.

On May 6, 1996, the Basslers (Debtors) filed a bankruptcy petition. On the date of filing, Debtors had possession of the vehicle and the Bank had possession of the Illinois certificate of title.

On June 28, 1996, the case trustee filed a complaint against the Bank seeking to have the Bank's security interest voided. The Bank answered the complaint and argued that Debtors deceived the Bank as to the state of registration and that its possession of the Illinois certificate of title constituted perfection. The Bank also argued that it should be subrogated to GMAC's secured interest, if the Bank's lien is found to be unperfected.

The parties submitted the matter on stipulated facts, briefs, and reply briefs. In his briefs, the Trustee argued that Debtors' failure to obtain a South Dakota title did not constitute an exception to South Dakota's perfection statutes and that the Bank failed to take the necessary steps to protect its interest. The Trustee noted that South Dakota's laws on perfection of secured interests in vehicle are very narrow.

In its briefs, the Bank relied on In re Littlejohn, 519 F.2d 356 (10th Cir. 1975)<sup>1</sup>, for its proposition that the Trustee should not be allowed to avoid the Bank's unperfected lien because the Bank had done all it could prepetition to protect its secured interest.

DISCUSSION. While Debtors and the Bank agreed that South Dakota law would control any disputes regarding the creation and nature of the security agreement, these parties could not declare what law governs the perfection of the Bank's security interest since the purpose of perfection is to provide notice to other parties. Instead, state law must govern the perfection of liens on vehicles registered in that state. See Fousek v. NEPCO Federal Credit Union (In re Peek), 31 B.R. 30, 32 (Bankr. D.S.D. 1983). The status of perfection must be determined based on the certificate of title in existence on the petition date. Id. Further, a trustee's avoidance powers must be determined based on the substantive law of the jurisdiction governing the property in question. Direct Air, Inc. v. Fairchild Aircraft, Inc. (In re Direct Air, Inc.), 189 B.R. 444, 450 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1995) (citing 4 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶544.02). The vehicle in question here was registered in Illinois.

The Tenth Circuit has abandoned Littlejohn due to a statutory change in applicable Kansas law on vehicle lien perfection. Lentz v. Bank of Independence (In re Kerr), 598 F.2d 1206 (10th Cir. 1979).

Neither party discussed whether the Bank's security interest was perfected under Illinois law on the petition date. A review of Illinois statutes and case law, however, indicates that lien perfection on a vehicle registered in Illinois is similar to vehicle. perfection of lien on a South Dakota a ILL.COMP.STAT.ANN. 5/3-202(b). As in South Dakota, a lien must be noted on the vehicle's title in Illinois. The major difference is that in Illinois perfection relates back to the date the security interest was created if the old title and a new application that denotes the lien are delivered to the Illinois Secretary of State within 21 days after creation of the security interest. delivery of the old title and application is made more than 21 days after the creation of the security interest, perfection occurs when As in South Dakota, perfection by the delivery is made. Id.notation of the lien on the title is the exclusive method of perfecting a security interest on a vehicle in Illinois. ILL. COMP. STAT. ANN. 5/3-207. Also as in South Dakota, a bankruptcy trustee takes priority over an unperfected security interest. 810 ILL.COMP.STAT.ANN. 5/9-301.

At the time of Debtors' petition, the Bank did not have a perfected security interest in the vehicle because its lien was not noted on the existing Illinois certificate of title. The Bank only had possession of the title. Possession of the title does not constitute perfection under Illinois law. Accordingly, the Trustee's interest is superior under § 544(a)(1) and 810 ILL.COMP.STAT.ANN. 5/9-301; Mottaz v. Keidel (In re Keidel), 613 F.2d 172, 173-75 (7th Cir. 1980). The Bank is left unsecured and its lien is preserved for the benefit of the estate's creditors. The delay in perfection of the lien can only be attributed to the Bank and its misplaced reliance on Debtors to protect the Bank's interest. See McRoberts v. Transouth Financial (In re Bell), 194 B.R. 192, 195 (Bankr. S.D. Ill. 1996)

As discussed in Trustee v. Home Federal Savings Bank (In re Mark J. and Susan X. Steinfurth), Adversary No. 96-4032, slip op. at 3, (Bankr. D.S.D. December 23, 1996), appeal filed, (citing In re Doyen, 56 B.R. 632, 634 (Bankr. D.S.D. 1986)), the Bank cannot raise against the Trustee any equitable defenses it may have against Debtors. Steinfurth, slip op. at 3; Bell, 194 B.R. at 196. To do so would defeat the purpose of the Trustee's avoidance powers under § 544(a).

Further, the Bank cannot, as it argues, step into the shoes of GMAC. On the petition date, GMAC's lien had been satisfied, as the Illinois certificate of title indicates. There are no legal or equitable bases for reviving that satisfied lien and placing the Bank in GMAC's stead.

Finally, this Court declines to adopt the rationale espoused in Littlejohn. The Kansas statutory scheme considered in Littlejohn was found to burden the vehicle purchaser with the obligation to obtain the new certificate of title. Littlejohn, 519 F.2d at 358. In contrast, the creditor is responsible in both Illinois and South Dakota for insuring that its security interest is promptly perfected. Keidel, 613 F.2d at 175 (specifically rejecting the analysis in Littlejohn); see generally First National Bank of Denver v. Turley (In re Turley), 17 B.R. 99 (Bankr. D.S.D. 1981), aff'd, 705 F.2d 1024 (8th Cir. 1983).

Trustee Lovald shall prepare a judgment in accordance with this letter decision.

Sincerely,

Irvin N. Hoyt

Chief Bankruptcy Judge
